We will especially remember hitting 17 knots on the open sea

Mr. & Mrs. Walton, San Diego, Ca, USA

What an experience! The boat meets every expectation for a fine cruising multihull with exceptional stability and comfort, spacious accommodation for a small army and good sailing ability, as an unexpected extra. Crew, however, has taken an excellent boat and created a fantastic vacation. The friendliness service and expertise (especially the cooking) far exceeded our expectations!

The McGraw Family, Jackson, Wy, USA

This trimaran is a wonderful floating inn. Our every need has been met. We are 11 guests. We all have our own space and have never felt crowded thanks to the roomy layout of this boat. The facilities far exceed those of a monohull

Mr. & Mrs. Hager, San Diego, Ca, USA

It was the perfect blend of good friends, great adventure and fantastic food. This multihull is a wonderful boat - roomy, comfortable and exciting under full sail

Mr. & Mrs. Hodler, Geneva, Switzerland

15 knots between Knidos and Simi

Mr. & Mrs. Savin, New York, USA

We had such a wonderful vacation on this yacht last year that we decided to do it again even though it would be our third trip to Turkey. The best example of this is that we had actually traveled, or thought we had, the same itinerary four years ago on another boat. But on this trimaran the trip was entirely different. From Paul's selection of bays, to Isabelle's food it was as if we had never seen these waters before

Mr. & Mrs. Gunderman, Charlotte, NC, USA

Their sense of humor and hospitality is wonderful. As for the captain and crew, we wouldn't ask for more. The difference between 5 trips on a monohull and this multihull is like a Jeep versus a Cadillac smooth riding, spacious and elegant. The Corinne's food made offered amazing variety and spectacular taste.

The Ritter Family, Malibu, Ca, USA

This trimaran I is more than a boat, it is a floating palace, providing stability which cannot be found in any monohull that I have sailed. The bedrooms luxuriate with spacious accommodation and thoughtfully placed portholes to provide maximum fresh air and light
